BYRON McCLELLAND'S WOE.

CINCINNATI, O., June 7.—Byron McClelland, suffering from an attack of malarial fever, is as blind as a bat. There is a chance that the great horseman will recover the use of his eyes, however.

MR. DALY'S NEW JOCKEYS.

Jockey Ham has been engaged by Mr. Marcus Daly's local agent and leaves for the ranch at Hamilton, Mont., today. Jockey John Lamley has been signed in the East for the Montana magnate and is on his way to the Daly ranch. Little Morris will ride the light weights of the stable and Ham and Lamley the middle weights. Morse has been released and will not ride in the copper, green and silver colors. Montana's racing begins June 26 and lasts fifty-four days. It will be high of class and more horses from the East will be there than were expected.

BABE MURPHY'S SOFT SPOT.

The Monday Ingalls' Park card was only an ordinary one. A good crowd was out and the afternoon's general action was lively.

The fourth race, which gathered a good lot—eight—at a mile under selling weights, was the feature, and Babe Murphy—sometimes as good as 4 to 1—won as she pleased and as she should. Hugh Penny was astride the Ezell mare, yet the ring got one of its verascopic notions and hunched her price from 6 to 5 up. Rumor had it that she wasn't as good as she might have been, but it all turned out to be idle talk. After Evanatus and Newsgatherer had raced themselves into fragment Penny brought Babe Murphy up and, at the eighth pole, had everything behind him towrope.

The opening five furlong dash furnished the only section of sharp racing. Thirteen contended. LaCrescent was the natural speculative choice. He won but only by a head in the very last jump. Elderly Tramp ran one of his orderly races and landed second.

John Brenock's Little Minch—Gwendoline youngster, Globe II, was the favorite for the two-year-old race and won easily from a long shot, Glen Terra.

Theresa H took the six and one-half furlong selling rather handily and The Rook had little or no trouble in disposing of Philomena in the last race.

Jas. R. Hand, the owner of Olivia L who finished second to Babe Murphy, ran the Ezell mare up $405 over her entered price, $300. Louis Ezell bought her in.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

R. Rome has bought Pinchback, Jim Farrell, Lastfellow, Elsie Ferguson and Dick Fordham from Char es H. Cogle. The entire band was sent Monday night to Highland Park to race at the meeting which begins today.

It seems that Riley Grannan's case against the Jockey Club is still in the courts. It is to come up at the session of the New York Court of Appeals about to re-convene at Saratoga.
